

Florent appoints David Weinstein as partner real estate

David Weinstein joins Florent as partner from 1 December 2022

David Weinstein transfers from Taylor Wessing to Florent. David is an all-round specialist in corporate real estate law. David assists Dutch and international clients in a wide range of real estate transactions, including the purchase and sale of commercial real estate (both single asset and portfolios), acquisitions of real estate companies, project development and the real estate aspects of corporate transactions and restructurings. He also regularly advises on real estate-related corporate law matters, joint ventures and investment structures.

David about his move to Florent: "Florent's energy and pragmatic approach immediately appealed to me. This is a way of working that I stand for and that suits me well. Providing clients with top-level legal advice in a personal setting and in an efficient manner to bring the transaction to a successful conclusion in a pragmatic way. Florent's ambitious mindset was immediately apparent to me, which is also reflected in the recruitment of several new colleagues. This allows us at Florent to provide clients with even better full-service advice. Florent already has a strong real estate practice and I foresee a solid synergy with the current real estate team. I look forward to further growing the real estate practice at Florent together with Jurjen. In this light, we are therefore very pleased that Sharon Kistemaker has also decided to join Florent from 1 December 2022."

Managing partner Jurjen Tuinman says: "We are extremely pleased with the arrival of David Weinstein and his team. I look forward to working with David to put Florent's commercial real estate practice further on the map in the coming years."

In recent years, David has worked on several different types of transactions and projects involving different jurisdictions. For example, David advised UMB Group (and its partners) on the acquisition of a shopping centre in Almere from Unibail-Rodamco-Westfield and assisted Crossbay in the structuring, acquisition and sale of its last mile portfolio in the Netherlands.
