

Victor ten Have joins Florent as a partner banking & finance

Victor ten Have joins Florent as partner from 1 February 2023

Victor ten Have will be joining Florent after 12 years at Clifford Chance LLP. Victor is an all-round banking & finance lawyer. He specializes in general lending, acquisition finance, real estate finance, corporate lending and sports (financing) transactions. Victor has advised banks, (direct) lenders, sponsors, borrowers and sports clubs across a wide variety of domestic, international and cross-border financing transactions.

Victor on his move to Florent: "I am very much looking forward to becoming part of Florent. The energy and entrepreneurial mindset immediately appealed to me. The rapid growth of this firm shows that its people, spirit, pragmatic approach and entrepreneurship have already given Florent so much success and I am looking forward to be part of its future. Florent and myself have the same ambition to build a successful (international) banking & finance practice."

Managing partner Chris Jager says: "Victor's arrival means a long-desired addition for Florent. His broad experience as a banking & finance lawyer will lead to valuable synergies with the other practice areas of our firm. We look forward to working with Victor to strengthen our position in the market."

About Victor ten Have

Victor started his career as a lawyer at Clifford Chance LLP and has worked there for the past 12 years. During his career he has been seconded to one of the world's leading commodity trading companies and to one of the most prestigious investment banks.

About Florent

About Florent Florent is a corporate boutique based at the Zuidas in Amsterdam, with an excellent reputation in the areas of m&a, insolvency law, corporate litigation, real estate, employment law and banking & finance. See www.florent.nl for further information.